Dear Friends,

There simply could not be a better time for us to join hands together as a Jewish community and travel to Israel! Not only do our Israeli neighbors need our support but we in Roanoke have a renewed sense of the importance of Israel in our lives.

Wouldn't it be wonderful to share these feelings as we travel through our homeland visiting the sacred cities of Jerusalem and Safed? Imagine floating in the rejuvenating waters of the Dead Sea and visiting the serene and beautiful waters of the Mediterranean?

This is the year to let our Israeli brothers and sisters know that we stand with them as we watch them rebuild Haifa and the Northern settlements. Truly, with the end of the war and the peace-keeping forces Israel is safer now than it has been in a very long time.

ARZA, our travel agency, has a decade long experience of working with the appropriate authorities to maintain security and will rearrange itineraries, even at the last minute, if necessary, to insure safety. Put simply, our safety, in Israel, will be a top priority. Statistically we will be safer in Israel than we are driving our cars on the highways here in Virginia!

Let's go to Israel together! Let's celebrate Purim in Israel this year and enjoy the amazing country that our people have created!
